CAMPUS ASIA DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM
Prospectus for 2021 Entry

About the Campus Asia Dual Degree Program

The School of International Studies at Peking University, hereinafter referred to as SIS, announces the opening for 2021-entry applications of the PKU-UTokyo Campus Asia Master's Dual Degree Program, for Japanese or Korean students studies at the University of Tokyo. The objective of this dual-degree program is to enrich the study abroad experience of participating students. Japanese or Korean students will have the opportunity to gain a more profound learning experience about international issues in China.

Combining empirical and theoretical approaches, this program focuses on in-depth studies in politics, foreign affairs, and social development of contemporary China, with courses taught and theses written in English.

Students participating in the Dual Degree Program between GraSPP and SIS ("dual degree students") and having fulfilled all its requirements will be granted both a Master of Public Policy (MPP) degree from GraSPP and a Master of Law in International Studies (ML) degree from SIS.

For more information regarding the introduction to SIS, the curricula, as well as degree and application procedures, please visit the website at www.sis.pku.edu.cn where you will find more details.
